

English

OCR Entry Level

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Year 10	Private Peaceful <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Feelings/Emotions Diary entry – past tense Punctuation/grammar War Poetry Newspaper report Fact or Opinion Comprehension Descriptive Writing Make a list/set of instructions Reader response – story review 		Macbeth <ul style="list-style-type: none"> William Shakespeare (research) Fact sheet Comprehension Punctuation/grammar Descriptive Writing (Character/setting) Features of a play script Drama Participate in discussion or role play. Letter of persuasion 		Descriptive piece Use book as reference/starting point -Portal to imaginary world -The Tunnel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Introducing a character/setting – Write a descriptive piece. Word types – noun; adjective; verb; adverb; preposition; simile; metaphor; onomatopoeia; personification; alliteration. Tense – past/present/future Sentence structure. Organise information and ideas clearly and logically (Story structure) Story mountain planner – Depending on attainment – Beginning; build up; problem; resolution; Ending.
Year 11	Beowulf <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Comprehension – infer; deduce. Sentence level activities – cloze; Descriptive writing – characters; setting; comparison. Job advert. Application. Storyboard. Grammatical terminology – noun; verb; adjective; Similes; metaphors; personification etc Roleplay. Poetry. 		Non-fiction texts -Weather and Warming planet <ul style="list-style-type: none"> An opinion piece/review Book review Features of a non-fiction text Fact or opinion Discussion around local news topic at time Phone call complaint Role play – interview with Prime minister around environment issues/pollution. 		Jekyll and Hyde <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Comprehension – infer; deduce. Feelings/emotions/personalities. Character comparison Jekyll and Hyde. Sentence level activities – cloze; describe characters; setting; comparison. Grammatical terminology – noun; verb; adjective. Instructions. Roleplay. Newspaper report.

 Pupils will continue to receive two lessons per week of Read, Write, Inc. Those pupils who have completed the scheme will access the formal English pathway.